

WORD OF THANKS

“Working towards the effective regulation of gaming and the promotion of legal and responsible gaming”

Colleagues

First and foremost on behalf of the Gaming Regulators Africa Forum (GRAF), I wish to thank the host of the conference, Gaming Commission of Ghana and the immaculate venue, Movenpick Hotel, Accra for their commitment and injection of resources to this important occasion. That is fraternal indeed. Thank you Ghana.

Various sponsors onshore and offshore did a splendid job for this conference to become a reality. Hats off to all sponsors who shall be announced at each point of sponsorship. Thank you for the support.

Thank you our presenters for taking the bold step of sharing wisdom with GRAF. Please take the courage to take follow-up questions and comments too.

The organising committee ably led by the Chief Executive Officer of the Limpopo Gambling Board (South Africa) Mr Serobi Maja incorporating secretariat relentlessly worked on the onerous task of making this convention a reality and shall coordinate right up to the end of the deliberations. Distinguished ladies and gentlemen of the committee in conjunction with the domestic sub-committee ably led by the Commissioner of the Ghana Gaming Commission, Mr Emmanuel Siisi Quainoo your effort and accomplishment is acknowledged with honour.

Finally I wish to extend regulatory compliments to all delegates.

I thank you.
